Welcome to the 4th edition of the Marbella International Film Festival held in the glamorous city of Marbella, 1st - 4th October 2009.

The Marbella International Film Festival provides a platform for independent film producers and emerging talent to showcase their work to an international audience.

The festival offers an artistic opportunity for talent within the world of cinema, visual and performance art, offering the chance for artists to ingratiate themselves within the commercial world of the industry. Only the highest calibre of independent artistic work is selected for exhibition at the film festival each year.

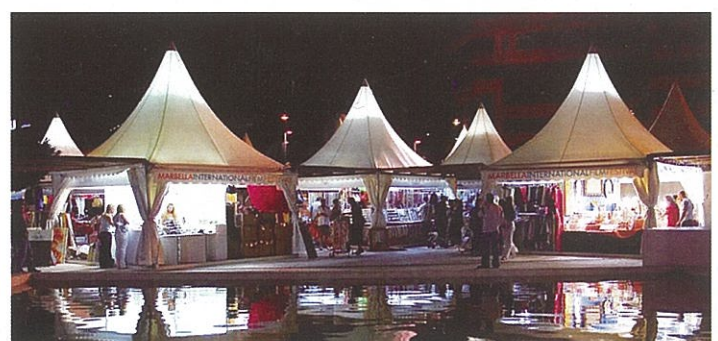

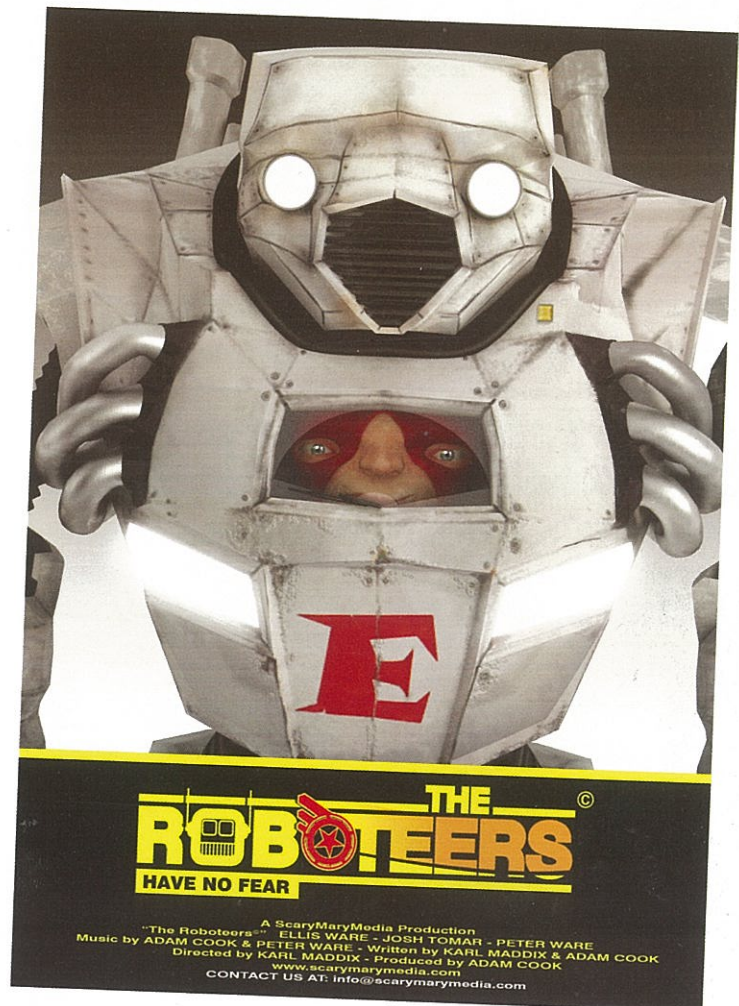

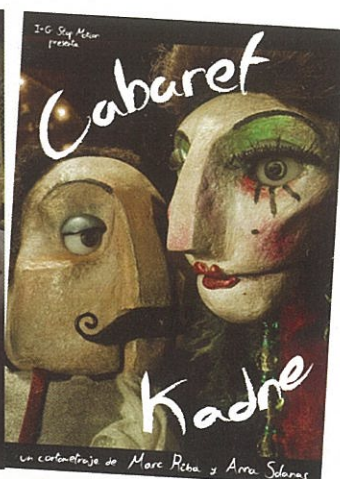

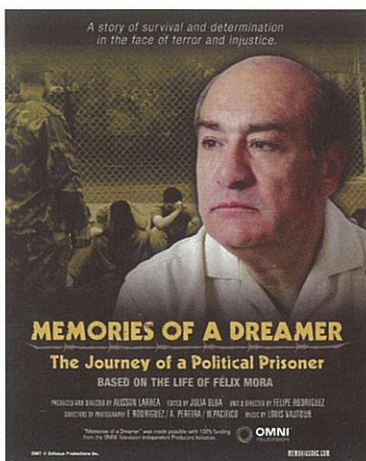

There are no boundaries for the talented. The festival will present works from Europe, the Americas, Africa, the Middle East and Asia.

The Festival is a much anticipated and very unique part of Marbella social calendar with events regularly held throughout the year, these include photography competitions, official poster competition for schools, short film competition for the young talented film makers, film premieres, music and dance festivals, art exhibitions, industry workshops on funding for film projects, co-production, distributions and lectures, fashion shows and gala evenings.

"THERE ARE NO BOUNDARIES FOR THE TALENTED".

Marbella Film Festival is Patron to young talent in Marbella, encouraging the community to express their creative artistic talents, uniting the wider community to get involved in this exciting star studded event. The festival is proud to contribute a touch of high artistic culture to the cosmopolitan chic that is Marbella.

The Marbella International Film Festival has an elegant array of extraordinary international independent art which attracts huge international media coverage, a number of esteemed members of the film industry, A-list actors and musicians, celebrities and local dignitaries actively supporting the occasion by making appearances throughout the year.

ALL ABOUT MARBELLA

Famed for its weather and beaches, Marbella is traditionally Europe's capital of glitz and glamour and a wealthy tourist resort. This spectacular town located in the heart of the Costa del Sol dates back to the 1600 BC when it was founded by the Romans and was called 'Salduba'.

ALL ABOUT MARBELLA

Marbella boasts much of its original Andalusian architecture which has been preserved within the Old Town. Narrow cobbled streets, white washed buildings and curved iron railings, a Muslim style decoration, beautiful churches and plazas of orange trees. Marbella is home to old castle ruins and churches, a perfect backdrop to the world of film.

Just a stones throw from Marbella finds a film maker's paradise in the ancient town of Ronda with its natural canyon and caves. While Granada which is famous for the Alhambra, snow covered mountains, ski resort and alpine environments provides a dramatic backdrop to a movie scene. An array of wonderful scenery and platform to film with 300 days of sunshine, Mediterranean Sea, palm trees, rocky cliff edges and endless pools. Not forgetting mountains and national parks – Marbella International Film Festival brings all this Andalusian glory to film makers.

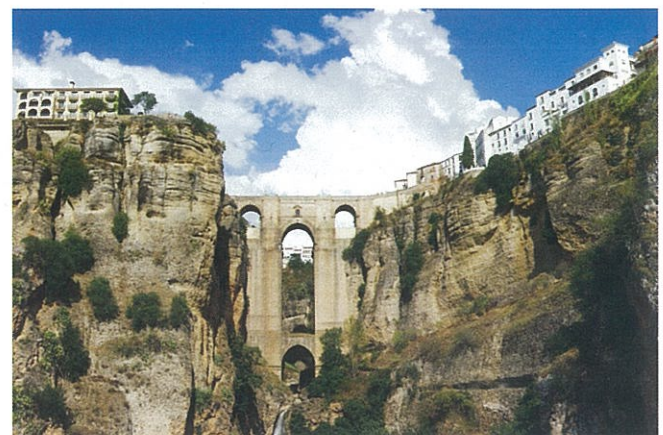

In addition this marvellous town is close to two international airports, Gibraltar and Malaga being only 45 minutes to either with a selection of low cost airlines servicing both airports

Marbella International Film Festival supports the growth and development of all the screen industries based in the town – film, television, video commercials and new interactive media. Our aim is simple, to sustain promote and develop Marbella as a major international film-making and film culture city.

Marbella International Film Festival offers independent film makers the the chance to screen their movies at this star studded annual event, with the added bonus of a Festival Village to promote the world of cinema. Distributors, Sales agents, Financiers, Performing Arts, Producers Network Master Classes & Writers Network will be available. The Marbella Film Festival is also Patron to Young Talented Artists which is partnered with various influential businesses within Marbella such as Marbella Film Commission in order to offer various filming permits for public areas, and the Marbella Town Hall and Local Police.

SUPPORTS GROWTH & DEVELOPMENT
IN ALL THE SCREEN INDUSTRIES

FESTIVAL VILLAGE

Film Market and Gran Cines Marbella

Throughout the four day event visitors can stroll through the Festival Village which is made up of small pavilions with film industry companies showcasing their projects and businesses.

Located in the heart of Puerto Banus, notoriously famous for celebrity visitors, the Festival Village plays centre stage to all outdoor activities including film industry pavilions, live entertainment on stage, a selection of shows including fashion, press pavilion, live radio interviews with celebrities and local dignitaries.

The screening and premieres during the Marbella International Film Festival are held at Cines Gran Marbella, Puerto Banus. The cinema has a selection of 7 screening rooms including a magnificent screening salon with a stage ideal for any premiere which is also where the awards ceremony is held on Saturday 3rd October.

This years film festival is delighted to announce the launch of the 'Bollywood Scene' which is a colourful selection of Indian films, fashion and dance brought to us courtesy of SH Media. SH Media has over ten year's international experience in Indian film publicity, marketing and distribution. Their diverse background and skills are helping to further raise the profile of the festival with the Bollywood Scene.

The performance art programme offers a multitude of productions; these include opera, classical music, theatre as well as musical theatre and dance belonging to various cultures and genres. The repertoire performed will be a reflection of the festival itself and showcase a broad spectrum of performance art as interpreted by different cultures.

From film themed nights of food and fashion to the gala awards dinner, the entertainment will be held at the Hotel Lorcrimar which is home to both the Marbella Film Festival and celebrity chef Jean-Christophe Novelli's restaurant.
