He then went on to work as a painter and sculptor creating atmospheres for original and pioneering club venues. He has received commissions for canvas paintings and murals from a growing list of international clients and has had his works displayed at several galleries in the UK. His creativity was further expanded through the medium of cinema by working on the art departments of films such as "Troy", "Alexander", "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" and "The Da Vinci Code". Overall Robert's artistic creativity flows from within his soul and transfers visually on to the canvas; the result is honest true art.

El cantar De los cantares

EL CANTAR DE LOS CANTARES, about 45 minutes duration, is a contemporary dramatization of the biblical text Schir Haschirim. This sensual and rare piece in its context is in short a display of joy and a tribute to carnal desire for
